

Institutions leave much to be desired

To the Editor:

TO GHOST WRITERS OF PEOPLE FOR HURON

Your inconsistency has me greatly confused. For the past several weeks (via, the newspaper) you have consistently implied and insuated that some of the members of the Huron Township Citizens Committee may be members of several other groups.

In the Sept. 30 edition you merely imply that they MAY BE, influenced by these groups. Why the change of heart? Did you find that you erred?

I don't know where you have been getting all of your so called information; but it must be coming from someone who is either very sick or prone to having hallucinations! What kind of influence are they under?

Your implications and insinuations leave much to be desired.

You know it, we know it and a great share of this community knows it!

I would sign my name; but that wouldn't be cricket, now would it?

Committee invites all to fact-finding session

To The Editor:

There seems to be some problem in our district this year concerning the conditions under which our teachers have had to work since September.

Our teachers have been working this year though they have been under quite a handicap. Contracts have not been settled as yet, but our teachers have returned to their teaching posts each morning and have done everything in their power to see to it that our school doors have remained open.

It would be very easy for them to strike, considering the friction they have received from the administration, but usually the students are the ones that get cheated under these circumstances. It doesn't seem fair that our teachers have to beg for things that our children will be most benefited by.

The board's negotiator, Mr. Carl Renton, should be the spokesman for the board of education's proposals. Why was Mr. Antcliff allowed to stop factfinding Tuesday Oct. 6? Let us explain a little about fact finding procedures.

Fact finding is a public meeting where both sides of the negotiators lay all of the facts on the table. The fact finder asks questions of both sides to see why settlements have not been made sooner. In this process, the schools complete financial records are exposed.

On Tuesday Oct. 6, the fact finder, Mr. Heilbrun came out to Hannan Road Elementary School and was ready to start the meeting at 4 p.m. There were a number of teachers and two board members present (Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Palmiter)

Fact finding is public unless one of the parties involved insists it be private or behind closed doors. The teachers' negotiators requested an open meeting, but Mr. Antcliff refused. Mr. Antcliff stated that the board would refuse to proceed if the hearing was public.

In the two hours and forty-five minutes that followed, Mr. Antcliff was to have gotten in contact with individual board members and receive instructions from them. It seems funny that he avoided (like the plague) and refused to speak to the two board members that were present.

Mr. Hartsuff would have been present at the meeting also, but he had other commitments. Those three board members were not contacted.

Three of the other men on the board of education belong to Rotary and this was Rotary night. Who did Mr. Antcliff contact and receive the "supreme word" from? Mr. Antcliff was not appointed by the board to negotiate as was mentioned before. Why did Mr. Antcliff instead of Mr. Renton, stop fact finding?

What hidden facts will be brought out into the open during fact finding that Mr. Antcliff is afraid of revealing? Or could there be more persons than Mr. Antcliff that have reason to be worried? What are they trying to conceal from us parents and taxpayers?

Mr. Heilbrun set the date of Oct. 15, at 4 p.m. in the high school lecture room for the next fact finding meeting.

Although Mr. Heilbrun stated the public is invited, Mr. Antcliff still wants the meeting to be behind closed doors. All citizens are urged to be there. Make your own mind up after hearing the facts with your own ears. We are sure every member of our community will find this meeting interesting.

See you there.

Letter appropriate after nine years

To The Editor:

The following letter, taken from the Feb. 2, 1961 edition of the Enterprise-Roman seems to be as appropriate today as it was nine years ago. The letter follows:

The citizens of Van Buren have a right to know where each candidate stands on the issues facing us in the coming election. One of the issues, perhaps the most important of all, will be voted on in the primary election of Feb. 20th. At that time we will vote on the Charter Township Plan for Van Buren.

As a candidate for township supervisor, I want to go on record as being opposed to this plan. My reason for this stand is very simple: We don't need it. Most of the features of the plan have already been publicized and it's so-called advantages have been emphasized by my opponents, but let me point out one fact. The needs of our community remain the same regardless of the form of government under which the township operates.

The mere act of adopting a Charter plan, or any other plan for that matter, will not automatically eliminate a single problem facing us today. It will still be necessary for our township officials, whoever they may be, to study the needs of the community and to devise programs for meeting them.

The important thing to remember is that under our present plan, any proposed program that requires an increase in taxes beyond the existing operating limit of one mill, must be submitted to the voters for approval. This keeps the ultimate control of your money and mine where it belongs, in our own hands.

Under the proposed Charter Township plan, up to five mills may be levied to support any program the township board may want to put into effect, regardless of whether the citizens approve of it or not.

I think the Charter Township plan is a threat to one of the basic principals of democracy. Republicans and Democrats should go to the polls together, if need be, to vote down any plan which will remove final control of local government from the hands of the people.

Hats off to Huron for a great job

To The Editor:

This week a verbal pat on the back goes to the Superintendent of the Huron School District for the super staff in the schools!

We feel the administration should be complimented on their judicious selection of new teachers. They are a fine addition to the staff.

Here are a few vital statistics on them. Of the 21 new teachers, 33 percent have masters degrees. They have an average of four years experience. They were recruited from 812 applicants. They are enthusiastic and able to enthuse their students.

Three of them obtained playground equipment for the Hannan Road School. This equipment, worth hundreds of dollars, was purchased by the district for $20. There are slides, swings, monkey bars, a jungle gym, parallel bars and teeter-totters.

There are exciting things happening throughout the Huron School District. The best of the old is being combined with the best of the new into the best education for our children.

The teachers of the Huron Schools who are not new have shown their enthusiasm for education, also. Here are some vital statistics on them.

Today 42 per cent of them have masters degrees. Three years ago there were only seven per cent. Nineteen of them have obtained their masters while teaching at Huron. This points out that the teaching staff has been upgraded tremendously over the past few years.

Several of them are Huron graduates who have chosen to return to their school to teach others.

We are the first ones to admit that masters degrees do not a teacher make, but they do give a good indication that the teacher himself desires learning in order to help the children desire to learn.

Hats off to Huron! We appreciate the job you're doing for our kids.

Sumpter Township lost 'a great man'

An Open Letter to the People of Sumpter

Sumpter Township has just lost a great man, a man who always had the people's best interest at heart. A man who had the courage to face the big people for the little people in spite of frustrations, disappointments and finally defeat.

To all his friends who knew and believed in him, my family and I say thank you and God bless you all.

To the people who had part in breaking the spirit of a very sick man and helped him speed to his death, I say God forgive you all.

I have no hate for any of you, only pity. He is at rest now and I hope Sumpter Township will be at peace.

THE NEW SNOWMOBILE — Leisure Vehicles, Inc., a new Romulus-based manufacturer of snowmobiles displays its newest entry into the winter sports market to Romulus officials. The firm's co-partners detail features of their new snowmobile. Left to right are Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, Arthur Glinski, city treasurer; John Drawe, firm partner and designer; Leonard J. Folmar, city clerk; Bob Bracey, firm partner and production head; and Charles Hazen, Romulus' industrial coordinator.

Romulus plant begins making snowmobiles

A snowmobile that emphasizes safety, while featuring sports carrying and handling and a unique look, is the newest entry into the fast-growing winter sports market. The new snowmobile is competitively priced and initially will be offered in two models, the Raider and the Roamer.

"We felt that offering a machine that combined the safety of a lower center of gravity and the double track, with the sleekness of the enclosed body, plus many of the other features of a sports car, would bring many new people into the market and also generate interest of experienced snowmobilers who are looking for something entirely new," said Drawe. Both models feature patented rear suspension and steering mechanism plus coil spring front suspension and high strength skis for maximum maneuverability and driver control. With their light weight and compact design either one can be hauled in a standard size station wagon.

With an understanding of the relationship and a detailed knowledge of the economic environment of their city, these departments are able to assume the vital roles of 'data purveyor' and 'educator-counselors'," said Charles W. Hazen, Romulus' Industrial Coordinator.

Knowledgeable counsel in the areas of production technology, labor utilization and raw material acquisition, or reliable data concerning market composition and consumer taste, to cite only a few examples, can significantly affect the decisions of an investor pertaining to the location of a manufacturing facility. The industrial development decision of the future will be more effectively oriented to the benefit of Romulus

Koch warns drivers of winter hazards

Chief of Romulus Police, Jacob J. Koch said Monday he's started thinking "cool." He hopes all Romulus drivers will follow his example.

Chief Koch's "cool" had to do with his department's winter traffic problems - untangling traffic snarls and keeping essential services moving. According to the chief, winter's first major storm usually catches drivers by surprise, and unprepared. "Summer driving habits are the first casualties," he pointed out. "Drivers fail to compensate soon enough for winter's differences. The results are blocked traffic lanes and dangerous tie-ups on 'Romulus' streets and highways."

Winter's two disabling tricks are reduced visibility and inadequate traction. Both, Chief Koch pointed out, require careful attention to driving skills as well as to the vehicle and its equipment.

Smooth driving, without sudden changes in either speed or direction, is the key to good winter driving ac-ording to the chief. This means slower than normal speeds and more distance between your car and the car ahead for an extra margin of control and for more time to react.

As for the vehicle, Chief Koch suggested a basic checklist recommended by the International Association of Chiefs of Police and the National Safety Council:

ENGINE TUNE-UP-- Include inspection of battery, generator and electrical system for dependable starts and to prevent stalls during sub-zero weather.

ANTI-FREEZE-- Check and replace if necessary. Most "permanent" types of anti-freeze should be drained and replaced every two years.

TIRES-- It takes good tread to grip snow and ice. Snow tires, if not worn, provide better traction than regular tires in snow - but are less effective in stopping on ice. Studded snow tires are recommended on all four wheels to improve braking as well as steering control on ice.

TIRE CHAINS-- Reinforced tire chains are best for severe winter conditions. They are needed traction for pulling through deep snow and climbing icy hills. They afford better control for stopping and starting.

BRAKES-- Have them checked and adjusted periodically. Grabbing brakes are sure to throw you into a skid on slippery pavements.

WINDSHIELD-- Defroster must be capable of clearing glass of ice and fog quickly. Wiper blades dried by summer heat need replacing.

LIGHTS-- Headlights, taillights and directional signals should be in perfect order. Clean all lenses frequently.

the attempt by one person to discharge the duties of both."

Applying this test to the situation at hand, Kelley said, "it is clear that as a member of the school board, the subject official would be competing for tax funds with the city council. The duty to represent the interest of the members of the school board is not in harmony with the duty to represent the interests of the city council in going after tax dollars from the same taxpayers."

Kelley held that the offices of members of the city school board and members of the city council are inferentially incompatible and added, "By accepting whichever of the two offices was more recently assumed, the individual in question has vacated the office originally held."

Gun control would be prize of extremists

While law-abiding citizens have been harassed and threatened with laws depriving them of the right of gun ownership, militant lawbreakers continue to go merrily on their way.

Breaking gun registration or ownership laws are of little moment to them except in instances like the one where police raided a home and confiscated 605 Thompson sub-machine guns bought as scrap metal at a military post in 1964. Also taken in the raid was an assortment of other arms, including rifles, shotguns, pistols, antitank grenades, military rockets and ammunition.

There is a vast difference between laws designed to curb the possession of such arsenals and laws restricting the basic constitutional right of the citizen who respects his obligation to society and the law to "keep and bear arms."

A chilling instance of what could happen to the disarmed citizen occurred recently in Los Angeles.

A series of newspaper pictures showed the sequence of events when an armed gunman entered a store, pulled a revolver and fired point blank at a clerk behind the counter.

The pictures showed the clerk as he drew and pistol and dropped the gunman and would-be robber in his tracks before he was able to dispatch a second and probably fatal shot.

The right to defend oneself with a firearm still exists in the U.S. But, if recent gun controls proposals had become law the pictures of the Los Angeles holdup attempt would have shown the tragedy of a defenseless citizen being shot down by a felon who quite possibly would never be apprehended.

Such would be the prize of gun control extremists.

Concern in state for law and order

By EDWARD E. MAHALAK
State Representative 38th District

There is, among residents of this district and in the state as a whole, a new concern for law and order and public safety. Crime and violence is widespread.

Two new laws enacted this year will work to strengthen the ability of police to cope with crime. One of them sets mandatory employment standards for police. Through this public act, law enforcement personnel will be assured of the skills and professional training needed to combat the rising tide of crime in the state.

This legislation, which had wide support from police chiefs, sheriffs and police association, will become effective Jan. 1. It is felt it will lead to not only better law enforcement, but a greater respect for the law as carried out by a well trained, professional force.

The other new law grants official authority for cities, townships and villages to conduct police cadet training programs. Under this act, persons between the ages of 18 and 22 years can be trained as police cadets and, at the completion of the program, enter the community's regular police force. This act will have double benefits. It will enable young people to start careers in law enforcement and, like the other new law, will improve on police professionalism and skills.

There have been several bills signed into law this session which will be of particular interest to sportsmen and conservationists. One of them makes it possible for sportsmen to buy an annual $18 license which will give them all of the rights of individual deer, bear, small game, bow and arrow, pheasant, general fishing, trout and salmon and general trapping (except for beaver and other) licenses and stamps. Sportsmen will, however, still be able to buy their individual licenses. This new law is now effective.

Another 1970 public act prohibits the importation into Michigan of protected wild animals and birds which are caught, killed or shipped out of a state, territory or country in violation of its protection laws. This law is aimed at protecting endangered species of animals and birds in other states. It does not apply to zoos, circuses, educational institutions and public agencies.

Another requires a hunting license for persons who transport firearms before and during deer hunting season.

One of the new laws permits county road commissions to designate certain local roads as "natural beauty roads." Such roads would be left in a natural state with natural vegetation. Guidelines for the preservation of the roads can be established by the local road commission and the Department of Natural Resources.

Another new public act exempts Michigan Indians from state hunting and fishing laws on Indian reservations when the state laws are in conflict with federal treaty rights.

Migrant labor housing conditions encouraged one of the new laws. It makes it possible for the State Department of Public Health to make loans and grants to migratory labor employers for the improvement and construction of migrant housing.

Children have 'right to read'

By LUKE WEGIENKA

Assistant Superintendent of Huron Schools

Parents and educators are deeply concerned today with the child who is encountering difficulty in reading comprehension.

The State of Michigan, especially the Department of Education has expressed their concern with those children having reading problems by supporting programs in remedial reading. On the national scene, the word is, every child has the "right to read". Every opportunity should be made available for those students needing special or extra help in reading.

Educators agree a child may be ready to read because of natural maturation. However, many children from homes where there are limited experiences are not ready.

Chronological age is not always a reliable indicator of a child's readiness to read. A child must have a continuing memory, be able to recognize symbols, and to discriminate in order to be able to read.

Teachers have been under pressure from parents to have the first grader reading and doing well enough to be promoted. They are doing the child no favor to pass him into another situation which will be more demanding than the one he is presently involved in.

When children are forced into formal reading before they are ready, they are faced with failure. Immature first graders do not catch up, but get further behind.

Children who express themselves freely and can talk and read about various subjects are based upon their experiences. Children who experience travel, who play with others, read and talk among themselves will be ready to read sooner than the educationally and economically deprived child. The home environment plays an important segment of the child's academic preparation. Situations vary from home to home. Communication is an important prerequisite of reading. Many games and other activities which promotes conversation should be a part of a readiness program.

Children who are low in readiness who have been given a period of readiness before starting formal reading have been found to have caught up by the end of the second grade.

Adequate mastery language is important for progress in reading. The major aspects of language that seem most significant in reading readiness are: 1) the child's vocabulary, which is basic both to his understanding of what is said to him and his ability to communicate; 2) mastery of sentence structure; 3) clarity of pronunciation. Mastery of language is dependent on many factors. The most important of these are intelligence, hearing and home environment. When children of normal intelligence are retarded in speech it is usually because of defective hearing, a very restricted environment or neurological difficulty.

Children who come from homes of low cultural level, or if a foreign language is spoken, do not have normal opportunities to develop an adequate language background.

The curriculum at both Hannan Road and Riverside Elementary Schools along with Huron Junior High School have provided the student with reading difficulty with a program of remedial reading. Section 12 of the state education act assists schools who have qualified personnel teaching remedial classes in reading.

Huron School District has received a federal grant from Title I funds of $18,018 for the 1970-71 school year. The major portion of this amount will be used in the salaries of the remedial reading personnel. Services from the Special Education Department, clinical social worker, speech therapist and diagnostician are also a part of Title I funding. Wherever federal monies are utilized they are always made available for the education of the handicapped child.

The Huron School District is fortunate to have qualified personnel who assist in developing programs for the students in need of reading preparation. Much assistance has been received from the Wayne County Intermediate School District in sponsoring workshops and seminars in the area of remedial reading and math.

The challenge is present to meet the needs of those with reading problems. It is all of our concern to see that each child has his needs satisfied.

Rebelling schoolmen told to keep cool

Schoolmen rebelling over the state's takeover of procedures of expelling suspending students have been told to keep cool until the rules are written.

And Dr. John W. Porter, acting superintendent of public instruction, says he doesn't know when that will be.

Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley ruled July 7 that the State Board of Education can dictate the procedures leading to expulsion or suspension and in the School Setting," to draft the first version of the rules and sent them to selected educators.

"It pains me to note that not only was that reaction most negative from those who had not seen the proposed rules, but much of the negative reaction was directed to some internalized conception of what the bigger...guidelines document might say, should it ever formally and officially see the light of day," Porter said.

He told the Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals that the rules will be drafted by his staff, will go before public hearings, then face board action before they can be made effective.

"I am hopeful that a cooperative solution can be reached in this sensitive area, but nevertheless a solution will be reached," Porter said.

"It is my view that the sooner we relegate this whole question to the place it properly deserves...the sooner we will restore good understanding to a major portion of the school setting."

Porter said that simple school-public relationships no longer exist, that "continuing militancy has produced a world where everything has to be negotiated."

More often than not, he said, the formerly minor student problems wind up in legal battles. Taxpayers are rebelling at voting more millage without proof it is being wisely used.

Porter said that there has been "a dramatic shift in the character of racial conflict, particularly in the urban centers," that technology is outstripping education, that the population has shifted downward to an average age of 25 years, social and communications gaps exist.

School curriculum important

By HENRY CANTIN

School curriculum and instruction is and should be one of the tremendously important phases in our present day educational system.

Providing the availability of subject matter and programs that befits a student's aims and wishes must be the constant objective of our school boards.

There was a time not so long ago when the three R's reading, writing and arithmetic—were sufficient. But in this space age of ours, this is no longer true.

Most large school districts, realizing the importance of school curriculum, have established and appointed top educators to position of director of curriculum and instruction.

The Board of Education of the Van Buren School District has gone one step further by approving the selection and appointment of a Professional Study Committee composed of school administrators, teachers and parents selected from throughout the community.

Recently the Professional Study Committee established a Curriculum Council of 15 members and charged it with the responsibility of coordinating all curricular activities within the school district.

This council, under the chairmanship of the school system's director of curriculum and instruction, held its first organizational meeting last week. It appointed subcommittees to study and report on various areas of updating and improving educational services and programs of the school district.

In our opinion, the selection of such a Curriculum Council with school-community membership is one of the best means of providing the utmost in student training and teaching.

Speaking of members of a community working together, we like to offer a bit of sage advice regarding recent domestic spats that have reached police bureaus in our area.

Don't try to change a husband or wife. Family life specialists at one of Michigan's large universities believe that husbands and wives can be "conditioned" to do the things their mates like.

By reinforcing good habits—by giving extra attention and affection—a spouse can tactfully indicate the mannerisms which may be slowly driving him or her absolutely nutty!

Among states offering tax benefits to industry as an incentive to reduce air and water pollution, Michigan is "above average" says Robert L. White, CPA, president of Michigan Association of CPAs.

Nobody in their right mind likes a messy home. This would also apply to messy streets and neighborhoods.

Maybe if local government officials, although it shouldn't be necessary, offer benefits on property taxes or assessments might do a great deal in fighting pollution and boosting a community's image.

City status important to Van Buren man

To The Editor:

How can Mr. Gollwitzer say that City Status is not an issue in the November election?

Republicans banded together to shout it down. Our progress, I feel has been hampered ever since.

As far as I'm concerned this issue is more important to me, as a taxpayer, than deciding who is a "professional." Does he realize that if we stay as we are now, just a township, that any small portion of Van Buren could be annexed into one of our neighbors, and we could lose some of our only tax base.

At least the Democrats have taken a stand on this issue, and I respect them for it. I also have heard that the Republicans have openly endorsed the idea of City Status for our township.

Is this the way "big business" people hope to cure our township of all our problems?

I wonder if the people know that under a city charter we could be taxed as much as 15 mills without a vote of the people. Once before we had a supervisor who dared to suggest a Charter Township, and a few "concerned"

I'm more worried about having people elected who are honestly working for our future than a group of followers who want to run our township like a corporation.

Bly overlooks important points

To The Editor:

Mr. Bly apparently has a solution to every ill that has or may reach our community. This appears to be ideal at first glance.

He would assure us that trailer and park owners will unite to insure equal taxation for all. How does he plan to accomplish this? He plans to pave, light and develop available lands to create a climate for future development. How does he plan to finance these improvements?

Past experience indicates the developer supplies these "extras" — not the taxpayer. He plans to petition for a charter township which would raise our millage from one to five mills and afford us no advantage or protection. What does he plan to do with the petition now on file in Lansing to consolidate the city of Belleville and Van Buren Township which must be disposed of before any other petition can be considered?

This action was initiated to protect our boundaries and, if in January the voters decide to seek a charter commission to pursue a charter for the approval of the electorate, it will give us two years of protection while we attempt to find permanent means to effectively retain our assets and find a better way to govern our community than the archaic township charter method.

If we vote NO there can be no protection for two more years according to the State Boundary Commission.

Mr. Bly tells us he will change this, however. How does he plan to do it? This oversight seems to be predominant in most of his promises.

Are his advisors misinformed or do they believe, perhaps with justification, that we, the people, don't know any better so we can be hand fed any data that will keep the computer grinding? Are we going to examine the output too late, or should we perhaps investigate the input?

Outer Drive hospital hosts refresher course

As part of its continuing effort to alleviate the ever-growing shortage of trained nurses, PCHA's Outer Drive Hospital in Lincoln Park is currently hosting its second refresher course for nurses.

Sessions in the eight week course got underway on Sept. 28 with 24 nurses enrolled. Major credit for this project is due Alfred P. Galli, director of Nurses at Outer Drive.

"The 24 students in our class are RN's who have been out of the nursing field for an extended period of time and now wish to resume their careers," said Galli.

"Many of this group have long hesitated to take this training step because they feel the numerous advancements in medical care in recent years have made their earlier training obsolete."

The course includes 240 hours of theory and supervised clinical practice. It is designed to update the inactive registered nurses in today's skills and practices with special emphasis on the comprehensive care of the adult patients with medical-surgical conditions.

Under the Manpower

Development and Training Act, which provides funds for the program, there is no cost to the nurses enrolled. The only stipulation is that the nurse must be willing and able to return to active nursing. Upon completion of the course nurses are free to choose their place of employment in the areas of public health, hospital or nursing homes.

Because of the shortage of teaching facilities in Outer Drive Hospital, two class sessions each week are conducted in the Pentecostal Holiness church near the hospital.

"We are greatly appreciative of the cooperation and its Pastor, Rev. E. Hardy," said Galli.

Club to meet tonight

The Gamma Gamma Chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa will meet tonight at 7:30 p.m., at the Quirk Elementary School's library. Founders Day will be observed.

Work will be started on the project for the Adolescent Ward, Ypsilanti State Hospital. Members are requested to bring their portable sewing machines.

McGoff named to Michigan Week post

John P. McGoff, president of Panax Corporation, East Lansing, has been named Michigan Week deputy general chairman for central Michigan.

His appointment was announced by Fred R. Charlton of Sturgis, general chairman for Michigan Week 1971 and administrative assistant to the president of Kirsch Company.

McGoff has previously served as Ingham County chairman and regional chairman for Michigan Week activities.

"John McGoff brings a wealth of experience in the communications field to our Michigan Week observance," Charlton pointed out. "In him, residents in the central portion of the state have a capable leader who will give perceptive direction to their programming for the 18th annual Michigan Week."

McGoff will soon name four regional chairmen, who will in turn appoint chairmen for the 10 Michigan counties in this area, which constitute Section C of the Michigan Week state organization.

Region 10 includes Arenac, Clare, Gladwin, Isabella, Ogemaw and Roscommon counties. Region 11 includes Bay,

Genesee, Gratiot, Midland and Saginaw counties. Region 12, Clinton, Eaton, Ingham, Ionia and Shiawassee counties. Region 13, Branch, Calhoun, Hillsdale and Jackson counties.

McGoff founded Mid-States Broadcasting Corporation which put WSWM-FM, East Lansing on the air in 1959. The company, which has been known as Panax Corporation since 1965, now owns seven daily newspapers and 12 weekly newspapers including the Daily Eagle, Belleville Enterprise and Romulus Roman, and various other enterprises.

McGoff and his wife, Margaret, reside in Williamston with their four children. He succeeds Osmund Kelly, executive director of the Manufacturers Association of Flint, in the Michigan Week post.

Ford Motor to award 70 1970 scholarships

Ford Motor Company Fund will award 70 four-year scholarships in its 21st annual competition, Benson Ford, Fund president, has announced.

In one of the most extensive scholarship programs of this type in the nation, the Ford Fund helps make a college education possible for sons and daughters of employees of Ford Motor Company and certain of its affiliates.

"As in the past, this year's scholarships will help deserving students who might not otherwise be able to attend college," Ford said.

Since the Ford Fund program began in 1951, more than 1,360 four-year scholarships have been awarded. This fall, 263 winners - including 70 from 1970 - are enrolled in 120 colleges and universities.

Scholarship winners may select any approved college or university in the continental United States. Awards cover tuition and a major portion of living expenses.

Applicants must be graduated from high school between Sept. 1, 1970, and Aug. 31, 1971, and be in the upper third of their classes. Completed scholarship applications will be accepted until Dec. 1, 1970.

Winners will be selected by the Ford Fund Scholarship Board after a review of results of each candidate's College Entrance Examination Board Scholastic Aptitude Test, high school performance, personal qualifications and other indications of potential for success in college and post-college life.

The Ford Fund also makes a supplementary annual grant of $500 to privately endowed educational institutions for each Fund scholarship winner in attendance.

Ford Motor Company Fund is a non-profit corporation operated for charitable, educational and scientific purposes. It is supported primarily by contributions from Ford Motor Company

Mach-McNeill united

Romulus man is wed in Fremont, Michigan

Karen Earline McNeill and Ronald William Mach exchanged wedding vows September 12 in a candlelight ceremony at the United Church of Christ in Fremont. The double ring ecumenical rite was read by the Rev. Eugene Cotton and Father Raymond Sayers of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Wayne.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gladys E. McNeill of Fremont and George H. McNeill of Grand Rapids. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Mach, Sr. of Romulus.

For her wedding day, Karen wore a gown of peau de soie and candlelight satin frosted with beaded Chantilly lace.

A floor-length Chantilly lace mantilla bordered with hand-sewn pearls, beads and sequins, complimented her dress. Both the gown and veil were made by Mrs. E.S. Autry of Memphis, Tennessee, the bride's grandmother.

MRS. RONALD W. MACH

Completing her bridal finery was a white orchid centered in a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Mrs. William Yarger of Detroit, as matron of honor; Jeannine Perrin of White Cloud, the maid of honor; Peggy Barringer of Lathrup Village; Sharon Mach, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Richard Mach of Plymouth; and the junior bridesmaid, Deborah Price of Fremont.

Identically dressed, the bride coterie donned gold crepe pant suits trimmed in avocado lace and brocade. Their cascade bouquets were comprised of autumn-colored mums and rose buds.

Attending the bridegroom were Richard Mach, Jr. of Plymouth, who was his brother's best man; Charles Mallard of Westland; Michael McNeill of Fremont, brother of the bride, Dennis Mach, brother of the bridegroom, Larry Mach, and Thomas McGhen, all of Romulus.

Timothy Scott Ranger of Newaygo served as ringbearer and ushers were William Yarger, Robert Guntow, Brian McNutt, and Jerry Merriman, all from the Detroit area.

At the reception held at the Ramshorn Country Club in Fremont, the bride's mother greeted guests in a yellow crepe dress with matching lace coat. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Mach, chose a green knitted crepe dress suit for the occasion.

Both mothers were presented with corsages of cymbidium orchids.

Master and mistress of ceremonies at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Nyson of Grand Rapids.

Following their two weeks honeymoon motoring through northern Michigan, the newlyweds took up residence at 7742 Merriman Road, Romulus. The bridegroom is employed by the family florist business.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jahncke of Montrose; Mr. and Mrs. James Shephard, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shephard, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ferguson and family all of Belleville.

Mrs. Verdys Shephard was given permission to use space in the home's dining hall for her father's party. She carried out a fall theme of orange, brown and yellow using candles on the tables and on the cake which she had iced with yellow and orange decorations. A sheet cake was also made and had each guest's name on individual pieces. There was enough cake so that each patient in the home would receive a piece on his supper tray in honor of Mr. Jahncke's birthday.

Richard Jahncke brought along some of his prize-winning dahlias from his garden and these were used as centerpieces on the tables.

The honoree received a number of cards by mail and gifts from his family to help make the occasion a happy one.

Protein for pregnancy

Protein needs increase during pregnancy and lactation. A pregnant woman requires as much protein as an average adult man and a nursing mother 14 per cent more. To satisfy these special needs, the daily diet should include generous servings of meat. Liver should be included at least once a week because of the large amounts of iron and vitamins A and niacin it contributes.

Wigs were worn by ancient Egyptians, Greeks and Romans.

Mothers' group eyes co-op nursery data

Mothers of pre-school children have formed a group to learn more about guiding their child through his psychological and social levels of development, to find out what services are available for child care in the Belleville area and meet other young mothers with whom they can share the trials and treasures of child raising.

They have taken advantage of the group situation to interest lecturers and promoters of products for children to offer their time and knowledge so that the mothers can get answers from specialists in childhood studies.

At the September meeting, there was a filmstrip and discussion on the techniques of running the Riverside nursery in New York. At 7:30 pm on Oct. 20, at the Belleville Episcopal Church, there will be a speaker from the Dearborn Co-operative Nursery to explain how a co-op nursery is setup and the type of daily program offered for children who are enrolled.

Plans are under way for a child psychologist to lecture and answer questions at the November meeting on "The Effects of Christmas on the Child".

Mothers of nursery-aged children is a non-profit group open to all mothers in this area who have an interest in meeting socially to further their knowledge of child raising and further new friendships without having to give their time to fund-raising committees.

Factory production cuts cost of mobile homes

Because of the application of intelligent factory production methods to housing, the mobile homes of today are proof that housing can be built more efficiently and at lower cost, according to Nationwide Mobile Home Parks, Inc.

Despite the rising cost of factory labor and material costs, the mobile home industry is reducing costs as production increases -- with the buyer receiving the immediate benefits.

Over 400,000 mobile homes were produced in 1969 with over 500,000 predicted for this year. Steady production increases throughout the past decade have resulted in decreased cost per square foot. In 1960 cost per square foot was $11.21 while in 1968 it had declined to $8.50. However, conventional housing costs in the same period rose from $12.50 to $18.50 per square foot. All signs to the future point to continual production increase and mobile home builders and community developers anticipate holding the cost line, and perhaps even reducing prices.

The mobile home buyer is now getting more for his money. The mobile home has not only become a more desirable product but the recent trend in the development of mobile home communities provides the buyer with a residential environment, even a country club setting, plus fringe benefits not found in conventional home communities. President Nixon himself has cited the factory built home as a way to beat the rising cost of housing.

The mobile homes themselves have become as comfortable as conventional homes with the width expanded from 8 to 12 feet and length has jumped from 20 to a maximum of 70 feet to accommodate two and three bedrooms. Basic price of the mobile homes often includes total interior furnishings.

For example, the recently opened Holiday Woods Park, a Nationwide development near Belleville on Martinsville Rd., offers homes ranging in price from $6,900 to $12,000 which includes the buyers choice of furniture, decors, carpeting, draperies, appliances -- and even a choice of bathroom color schemes.

Financing of mobile homes is also easing. You can buy a home in Holiday Woods, for example, for only $500 down, over a 10-year period are $164.34 a month which includes insurance, lot rental, water, taxes, and house payment.

4-H'ers join in nature program

Mother Nature is generous indeed. And this year she is showering her bounty on 187,000 4-H'ers enrolled in the national 4-H horticultural program.

The young people grow fruits and vegetables, plan and plant their home grounds and care for ornamental plants for the house, yard and garden. And they learn from practical experience and educational materials provided by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Horticultural pursuits are for all seasons, but perhaps, late summer and early fall are the most colorful and fruitful times of the year. It also is the time when 4-H members find they can reap a double harvest. Not only do they use and enjoy what they have grown, but many of them earn recognition for their good work.

Teaming up with Mother Nature in the bountiful harvest is Allis-Chalmers, sponsor of the 4-H achievers with awards at county, state and national levels.

Topping the list are eight $600 national scholarships. The state winner receives an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago. The 1970 Congress is scheduled Nov. 29-Dec. 3. County awards are medals of honor and this year more than 6,500 young horticulturists are expected to receive such recognition.

In announcing the awards given by Allis-Chalmers, the National 4-H Service Committee notes that all young people from 9-19 years of age are eligible to participate in the 4-H horticultural program.

Enrollments are being accepted at county extension offices across the country.

Ford sponsored bill passes committee

The Education and Labor Committee of the House of Representatives has approved a bill co-sponsored by Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District) to create public-service jobs for the unemployed.

The bill was cleared last Wednesday by the committee and efforts are now under way to schedule House action. A similar bill has already been approved in the Senate.

"In view of the unemployment crisis facing our nation, this legislation is most timely," Ford said. "It would provide as many as 200,000 new jobs in schools, hospitals, and other local and state agencies.

welfare, and this legislation will help make this goal possible.

"Even though unemployment has been rising steadily for the past two years, there are many unfilled job needs in such fields as education, health, recreation, housing, transportation, beautification, conservation and environmental protection. These positions can provide many full-time career jobs, and also offer temporary work during periods of high unemployment."

Congressman Ford's proposal also reorganizes all federal manpower programs, giving local officials a louder voice in their contents. It would increase allocations from the present $1.5 billion annually to $2 billion in 1972, $2.5 billion in 1973, and $3 billion in 1974. Of the 1972 appropriation, $375,000,000 would be earmarked to help provide public service jobs for the unemployed.

revenues to meet demands but with a balance of funds carried over we will break even."

Haggerty students hold election

The students of the sixth grade class at Haggerty Road Elementary School, 13770 Haggerty Rd., held their mock convention in which four candidates were nominated.

The convention was a part of a class study on election procedures.

The children decorated the room with banners, balloons, and posters. The students picked names of the states from a hat and they had as many votes as the state they represented.

There were three sessions of the convention. Each session started with the singing of the national anthem, the pledge, and roll call of the states. James Fitch, teacher, acted as chairman.

During the roll call a student could nominate a person in the room for a particular office. Then another would second the motion. Many of the students had a chance in counting the votes and calling the roll.

The convention results were as follows:

President, Jan Wisniewski; vice president, David Gray; secretary, Robin Wilson; and party chairman, Denise Patterson. These students who won formed a party calling themselves the Wildcats.

Earlier the class held a primary election in which candidates were elected. The students who won formed a party calling themselves the SWYL'S.

The next project is a two week campaign in which the candidates will seek to win the election which will be held on Oct. 22, 1970.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

Ben Franklin said, "A good newspaper and Bible in every house, a good schoolhouse in every district, and a church in every neighborhood, all appreciated as they deserve, are the chief support of virtue, morality, civil liberty and religion."

Newspapers are published everywhere. Every individual person must determine his or her extent of appreciation. Nearly every home has a Bible. Too few are read; hence unappreciated by the many who own a Bible as a mere possession. Schools are in every district. They and their purpose simply can not be appreciated when small but determined militant minorities successfully shackle the ideas and ideals of the majority of students and teachers. Churches are seen in every neighborhood. They can not be appreciated when people absent themselves from devotional participation and refuse to change patterns of daily conduct.

Isn't it obvious that if virtue, morality, civil liberty and religion are to be supported, a lot more people will have to change their thinking, attitudes and actions?

7 seconds to go...

Huron loses, 14-12

What can happen in seven seconds? The Huron High gridders found out last week just exactly what can happen in seven short seconds... they lost their first conference game, 14-12.

After dominating their opponents on the field and on the scoreboard throughout the game, the Chiefs saw Blissfield turn a blocked punt into the game winning touchdown.

The loss was the first for Huron this year and it completely turned things around for the stunned Chiefs. The victory was Blissfield's first in four outings.

This week Huron will entertain undefeated Monroe Catholic Central in a Huron Conference bout which may well determine the championship.

looked as if the Chiefs were about to register their fourth straight win of the season.

In the first quarter of the game Tom Umin capped a 67 yard drive with a six yard touchdown run. The point after failed.

Huron got the ball back quickly, when Dan Clark picked off a Blissfield pass which gave the Chiefs the ball only 21 yards short of the goal line. Glenn Dregansky ran the final 21 yards for the TD. The point after failed again and this proved to be the margin of defeat for the Chiefs who led 12-0 at the end of the second quarter.

After the second Chief six pointer, Blissfield set sail for Huron territory. Blissfield made it down to the one yard line where the Chief defense stiffened and the last yard came hard for the host team.

in control by a 12-8 margin and an upset in the making.

The second half was scoreless until the final seven seconds when Blissfield capitalized on a blocked Huron punt and Myers teamed up with Bob Roderant to make good on an 11 yard scoring pass which gave Blissfield its first victory of the season.

Once again, Dregansky led all rushers with 90 yards while Umin followed with 67, Coach

Lee Smeltzer noted that Dregansky and Clark also put in good performances on defense.

Huron will take a 3-1 record into the battle with Catholic Central which boasts a 4-0 and a 23 game winning streak. The game will be held at Huron High beginning at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

ONE BRIGHT SPOT — If Belleville is to recover from its present doldrums, running back Garrade Pettus will have to come through for the Tigers. Rookie coach Keith Emerson has had problems with his offense and will try to unwind it Friday night at home against Livonia Bentley.

Lose 3 straight

Tigers stay in nosedive

After a fast start the battle with Redford Union out of sight.

In last week's defensive neither team was able to move the ball and neither team hit the endzone until Redford Union did it in the third quarter on a one yard plunge by Bill Booke to pull off a 7-0 homecoming win over the ailing Tigers.

"Mistakes and an inability to execute on offense is what has been hurting us in our last three ball games," Belleville coach Keith Emerson said after he watched his team go down to its third straight defeat. "We have been letting down and that hasn't helped much either. Actually our younger ball players have been out-playing the seniors, which isn't good when we have a senior team."

"Maybe we can get going against Livonia Bentley. Belleville hasn't beaten them in over five years and it would be a good one for us to get started on."

Belleville's defense showed some improvement in the Redford Union game as they contained the opposition effectively, but Belleville's offensive machine refused to 'ignite'.

Mike Garland, the Tiger's junior signal-caller provided some hope for the future as he played what Emerson called his "best game of the season." Garland completed six of 11 passes for 83 yards.

On defense coach Emerson was pleased with the play of Vic Ogletree and newcomer Dave Lawton, who picked off the only interception of the game.

The Belleville-Livonia Bentley game will be held on the Belleville field beginning at 8 p.m. Friday.

Tigers breeze past Bentley in cross country

Belleville harriers added their seventh victim in a row by axing Livonia Bentley 17-39 to remain undefeated in the Suburban Six Conference.

The downing their Livonia rivals the Tigers allowed only one Bentley runner to finish in the top six places as the Tigers ran off with first, second, third, fifth and sixth places.

Once again John Cross finished the course ahead of all his rivals as he won the event in 13:11. Phil Combs finished second followed up by Lonny Clark in third. Roger Thomas and Gary Refitte rounded out the Tiger scoring by finishing in fifth and sixth place respectively.

At the Albion Invitational held on Saturday the young Belleville club placed fifth out of a field of 20 schools. Bay City Central won the meet accumulating 88 points to runnerup Ann Arbor Pioneer's 104. Belleville amassed 158 points for their efforts.

In this Invitational John Cross paced the Belleville runners with his sixth place

Romulus gets trampled, 46-0

If the Romulus Eagles are a little shellshocked after their 46-0 pasting by Walled Lake Western Friday nobody can really blame them.

The Eagles have spent their time this past week licking their wounds in an attempt to recoup for their Twin Valley League opener with Ecorse on Friday.

Eagles mentor George Pratt said that his team went into the game last Friday with a team that is perennial, ranked among the best in the state. Not only were the Eagles up against an exceptionally tough opponent, but they had to go into battle without the services of three of their best men as the teams leading ground gainer; Brent Hamilton sat out the game with starting center John Maitland and first string and Tom Minch. The trio is expected to see some action in the Ecorse contest. It appeared that the Walled Lake team, perhaps with an eye on the polls, deliberately tried to pile up the points, even after the game turned into a rout. With the score 24-0 and again at 40-0 Walled Lake tried to get away with an onside kick. The winners also attempted a two point conversion after scoring their 40th point.

"They just wore us down out there," coach Pratt commented. Walled Lake seemed to play much like Ohio State when it gets an opportunity. The Walled Lake coach kept his starting lineup in throughout the game, considering that Romulus couldn't even start its starting 11, the score isn't surprising.

Faced with a drastic loss of manpower, Pratt came up with three sophomores and one freshman to fill up the gaps in the Eagle lineup. "When you play young kids like that you have to expect to make mistakes," Pratt said. "But I was pleased with the way our boys did not give up, they kept trying and hitting right up until the game ended."

Freshman defensive starter Mike Hunter came off with an impressive performance as he was credited with making six solo tackles and assisting on two others. Sophomore starter, Daryl Goodin put in an identical performance.

Leighton Ballard led all tacklers with seven solos and nine assists and Keith Simmons also made good on seven solo tackles while assisting on three. Mike Casazar accounted for seven tackles and one assist even though he was outweighed by 50 pounds.

As if Romulus didn't have enough troubles, the Walled Lake front line averaged 210 pounds which is more than the Eagle's biggest man weighs.

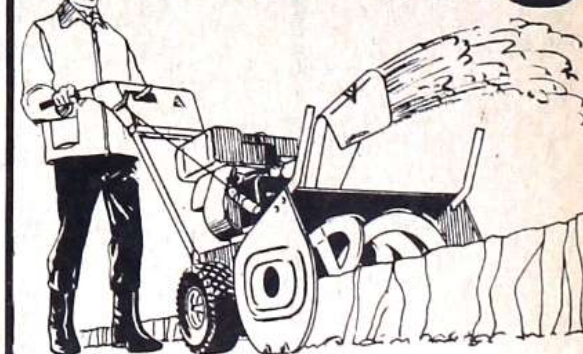

When Romulus got the ball Keith Simmons had the best success at moving it than any of his teammates as he rushed for 65 yards in 10 carries. Romulus will take its 1-3 record to Ecorse in an attempt to halt its three game losing streak. Ecorse is currently the league leader with a win over River Rouge and a tie with Willow Run. The game will begin at 3 p.m.

Dick "The Intimidator" Butkus did it again! Or did he? That's one question which remains unanswered after the Lions' 28-14 triumph over the Chicago Bears, Monday night.

Did Butkus, the "big bad Bear" who has earned the distinction of being the most feared man in football today, give the Lions' running back Altie Taylor a free lesson in karate?

Some thousands of fans who flocked to Tiger stadium said "Yes" the mean middle linebacker did "chop-chop" Taylor. And hundreds of others who saw the play on TV agree.

What do the two principle characters in the controversy have to say about all of this. First, let's hear the accused:

"All I was trying to do was jerk the ball out of Taylor's hands. I tried to rip the ball out of their hands a couple of times and the fans thought I was doing something else. People get a little excited."

That's Butkus' story and, unless you're over 6 foot 3 inches and 245 or more pounds of muscle - you better not disagree with the Lithuanian boy who grew up on the streets of Chicago.

What does the "victim" - Taylor have to say? Here's what - "I never felt a thing. But I heard the boos. I know he was just going after the ball. I fumbled three times the last time I played against the Bears and he was grabbing for the ball."

Well, if the victim says the big bad Bear didn't provide any karate lesson, who am I to say so? So I won't. After all, Butkus didn't get to become the meanest man in football by picking daisies - maybe by planting them on the bodies he strew all over football fields - but definitely not by picking them.

Michigan Associated Press high school football poll.

Nine of the 41 rated teams suffered losses to fall from the top 10 in their respective classes. Four of them were Class A, two in B, one in C, and three in D.

Meanwhile, the only change among the leaders came in Class C where Galesburg-Augusta (4-0) received one more poll point than Hudson (4-0) 73 to 72. Last week both were tied for first with 71 points each.

Voting is done by panels of five members in each class and is on a basis of 15 points for first, 14 for second, down one for 15th—although only the top 10 are listed. Panel members base their selections on their own observations plus recommendations from various newspapers and radio-TV stations throughout the state.

Flint Central (3-0), idle last week, remains atop the Class A ratings ahead of Bay City Central (3-0-1).

In Class B Grand Rapids northview (4-0) holds the edge over Monroe Catholic Central (4-0), while in Class D Mancelona (4-0) rates as No. 1 ahead of North Adams (4-0).

Biggest in this week's poll came when third-ranked Royal Oak Kimball lost over the weekend and fell into the honorable mention listings in Class A. Other "A" victims who dropped out of the top 10 were Warren Fitzgerald, Midland and Muskegon.

Midland Bullock Creek and Bad Axe got the axe in Class B. In "D" Saginaw St. Mary, Detour and Hale dropped from the elite with losses.

Man files suit to halt big game

A court suit has been filed, seeking to block the Michigan State-Michigan football game here Oct. 17, alleging it is a nuisance because alcohol and drugs are in use in the stadium.

"I am not against football, but I am for equal law enforcement. If the law applies to rock festivals, then it should also apply to football games," Block said.

A similar suit was used to prevent a rock festival at Goose Lake Park near Jackson over the Labor Day weekend. Circuit Court Judge Ross W. Campbell said he would set a date today for a hearing.

Ford hails passage of Anti-Crime Bill

Congressman William D. Ford D-15th District hailed the passage Oct. 7 of a tough anti-crime bill by the House of Representatives.

Ford was among 341 House members who voted for the bill, which was opposed by only 26 Congressmen. The legislation will give the Federal government broad new powers to crack down on organized crime and terrorist bombings.

"Crime and violence are posing a serious threat to our society," Congressman Ford said. "We have already approved the expenditure of Federal funds to help local police departments meet this growing challenge. Now, we must muster the resources of the Federal government in an all-out attack on organized crime and against the wave of terrorist bombings that is sweeping the nation.

"This is not a partisan problem," Ford declared. "Criminals are not Republican or Democrat. Neither of the political parties can be blamed for the increase in crime. It will not be stopped by talking about law and order. It will not be stopped by using it for political purposes. It will be stopped only by strong action, such as we propose in this bill."

Ford said that similar legislation has already been approved by the Senate, in somewhat different form, and a Conference Committee will have to meet and iron out the differences. He expressed hope, however, that the bill will become law this year.

The bill contains provisions to prevent racketeers from infiltrating legitimate businesses, to make illegal gambling a Federal offense under certain circumstances, to protect witnesses in organized crime cases, to authorize the FBI to investigate college bombings, and require licensing of explosives manufacturing and of persons or firms who carry explosives across state lines.

Congressman Ford, a practicing attorney for 13 years before his election to Congress, served as a local judge and a municipal attorney for several years; working with law enforcement.

"I am aware of the many problems we face in the area of law enforcement," Congressman Ford said. "I think this bill will go a long way toward helping our policeman in their fight to make and house lights."

Gordonier PTA sees dancers

The Gordonier School PTA had its best turnout in 10 years at a meeting last Monday night.

Mrs. Phyllis Persondek, president, reported more than 150 parents, teachers and children were thrilled by performances of costumed Indian dancers.

Accompanied by tom toms and chants, the dancers performed their ritual dances while a narrator explained the meaning of the movements. Children from the audience joined the last dance of the evening, providing some extra excitement.

Among the matters discussed at the business meeting was a project for the year. It was decided that each room will be provided with an item of their own choosing. Plans were also begun for a rummage sale slated for later in the year.

Daniel Murray, Gordonier's new principal, spoke to the group and introduced the teachers.

Following refreshments the meeting was adjourned with PTA membership standing at 47 members.

Budget hearing is set

A public hearing on Wayne County's tentative annual budget will be held by the board of Commissioners at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Oct. 19 in the City-County Building auditorium.

Any citizen wishes to appear will be heard by the Ways and Means Committee which consists of all 26 commissioners. Frederick Yates, of Detroit, D-District, 9, is Ways and Means Chairman.

The budget recommended by the County board of Auditors for next fiscal year totals $195.98 million. It is $29.6 million higher than this year's, largely due to a sharp increase in the welfare load.

The Board of Commissioners will decide whether to make any changes in the recommended budget after the public hearing and after hearing budget appeals by county departments. Final adoption of the budget is set for Oct. 29. The county fiscal year starts Dec. 1.

Supper slated

The United Methodist Church of Belleville will sponsor a Pancake Supper, Oct. 21 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $1.25 per adult and 75 cents for children under 12 years of age.

Target practice slated

The junior members of the Huron Valley Conservation Association held their first trap shoot of the season on Oct. 3. There was a 50 per cent turnout with several top shooters in attendance.

A good spirit of competition existed and everyone improved their skill as well as safety habits, thanks to Noble Hamrick and Bob Heaslip.

Junior Members are enthusiastic and looking forward to future events.

With the pheasant season less than a week away, the HVCA would like to invite the membership to use the new skeet facilities at the club grounds on W. Huron River Dr. this Saturday.

Bring your shot gun and shells. The targets will be available at the range.

Come on out and sharpen up before opening day of pheasant season next Tuesday.

Fackler says Ford is soft on crime

Ernest C. Fackler, Republican candidate for Congressman, declared today that Rep. William Ford and the Democrats in Congress have been "soft on crime." Noting that 13 major Nixon Administration anti-crime bills are still unpassed by the Democratic controlled 91st Congress, Fackler said Ford and the Democrats are sitting on their hands while crime continues to be a major problem in America.

The GOP candidate said the statistics show the Democrats failure to wage any war on crime. Crime rose more than 100 percent from 1960 to 1969 when the Democrats had complete control of both the White House and Congress.

The rate of crime increase was 17 percent in 1968, the last year of the Johnson Administration, and dropped to 12 percent in 1969, the first year of the Nixon Administration.

Stating that the Nixon forces have the same laws that LBJ's administration had to work with, Fackler said the wiretapping law, for instance, has been used with "devastating effect against crime" by Attorney General John Mitchell while LBJ's Attorney General, Ramsey Clark, had spurned its use.

Seminar set for Romulus

The seminar will be sponsored by the Michigan Department of Education and the Michigan Association of State-Federal Program Specialists and is expected to draw some 300 Michigan School administrators and teachers. It will be held at the Sheraton Metro Inn.

Nudity - Why do so many of those rock festival folk stroll around in the nude? What's the point? If you're going to strip in public, you ought to have a reason, right? Take the Marx brothers. Years ago in Hollywood, producer Irving Thalberg, a bigwig among bigwigs, kept the Marx brothers waiting in his anteroom. Finally they sent out for a bag of raw potatoes. And when old Irving eventually stepped forth from his plush sanctuary to receive them, he found all four sitting stark naked in front of his fireplace, roasting spuds. He never kept them waiting again. They made a practical thing out of that skin scene.

In the next 10 seconds druggists nationwide will fill approximately 100 medical prescriptions. Did I tell you the average female giraffe is about three feet shorter than the average male giraffe. Research continues to identify that single word in English that begins with "ud"? Find it surprising there are 170 places in Great Britain called Cold Harbour, don't you? Four out of five American doctors retire at the age of 72.

Customer service - Q. "Who was Pretty Boy Floyd?" A. twirp who shot people 40 years ago. In 1934, FBI men did unto him what he had done unto others. When they went through his pockets, they turned up a half dollar, notched 10 times, a notch for each man he'd killed... Q. "What do you think of Howard Csell as a football announcer?" A. Better not comment on that. You know what old Zeus said, "Criticism comes easier than craftsmanship."

Statistically, the healthiest women are wives. Next, as far as good health goes, come single girls without family responsibilities, then childless divorcees, after that widows with grown children. "When I got my face lifted by surgery," reports a feminine customer who waits tables for a living, "it was purely practical. I knew it would double my tips, and it did." Waitresses, please note.

Eyes - The pupils in some eyes are round, like yours and mine. In some, they're slitted vertically, like cats'. Or slitted horizontally, like horses'. File that, too. Incidentally, that animal with eyes most like a man's is the octopus, I'm told. Odd?

A certain small percentage of insomniacs actually suffer from a mental maladjustment known as hypnophobia which is the fancy word for fear of dozing off... It's also a fact that the mother with school-age children now more apt to be on a payroll than the wife without same.

Your questions and comments are welcomed and will be used in "Pass It On" wherever possible. Please address your letters to L.M. Boyd, P.O. Box 99068, Seattle, Wash. 98199.

General tendencies: Today's full moon brings into active expression many of the changes that have been planned - and a great many that had not even been considered so most everyone would be wise today and tonight to be ready for moving in different directions or adopting modern methods so that a much greater success can be attained.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Ideal day to discuss new arrangements with allies which will make the future more profitable and satisfying. Settle any misunderstandings you may have had. Social activities are particularly enjoyable.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Get those behind-the-scenes duties handled properly so that you can put projects across that mean much to you. Follow your intuition and you know how to make the future more profitable. Avoid gossip.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Some romantic or social affair can prove to be most delightful, provided you dress with good taste and are at your best. Plan for happier personal life in the future. Stop being so pessimistic.

Moon children (June 22 to July 21) You have new ideas for making the days ahead more conducive to success and happiness, so sit down with bigwig and state your aims. Get the new appliances that make your work easier, more efficient.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) You may have to change your ideas somewhat if you are to have the greater wisdom needed for real success. Stop wasting time. Tell co-workers of your plans for improving present modus operandi.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Rush to get responsibilities out of the way so that you can go on to bigger and better things that you like. Mate should be able to comprehend your views much better at this time. Establish true rapport.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Go along with that clever person who endeavors to speed up your own activity in right direction. Join forces. Make new agreements with others that are worthwhile. Take things more in your stride than you have in the past.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Being more enthusiastic about what you have to do can see you making great progress, accomplishing a good deal. Buy that new suit, dress, etc., that improves your appearance. Avoid extravagance, though.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Ideal day to be with best friends and to do whatever interests you most of a business or recreational nature. Self-expression brings much happiness. Extravagance is not wise, though.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You want more harmony at home and can achieve it, provided you do something constructive about it. You have fine, new ideas and should put them in action. Taking more pains with routine work brings greater benefits.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Your head is buzzing with excellent ideas. Carry them out in a positive fashion. Showing more cooperation toward regular partners speeds up production. Do some reading tonight.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Put your financial affairs in the hands of experts and you will avoid trouble and do much better in the future. Making the improvements to property that are needed adds to their value, beauty.

If your child is born today ... he or she will be one of those young people who are destined to be making changes all of the time, or so it would seem, but this trend can be balanced if you teach early to analyze, think, weigh every plan before going ahead with it. The daily requirements will then be met with ease and the life will become quite smooth. There is much travel and even two or more changes of occupation during the lifetime. Two marriages are very likely. Teach ethics early.

'We Bombed in New Haven' good first effort for Heller

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Drama Critic

first effort doesn't receive much attention as "We Bombed New Haven" did—unless, of course, the playwright happens to be Joseph Heller, the author of "Catch 22."

This is unfair, perhaps unfair to all to Heller himself who, to exceed the standard cliché, shows more than just a little promise in the work with which the University of Detroit Theatre 113 has opened its 1970-71 season.

Like anyone else, Heller should be allowed to develop in private, away from the glare of "Catch 22." But this is too much to expect and so "New Haven" must stand with all its attractions and all its faults fully exposed.

The most important fault is that, like many a new playwright, Heller tries to pack away too many goodies into one package. "New Haven" is a composite of every expressionist style from Brecht to Pirandello to the absurdists.

The core idea is intriguing. At a wartime air base—sound familiar?—pilots are being sent out on mission from which they know they will not all return. However in "Catch 22" the insanity they faced was the reality of a real war; in "New Haven" it's a fictional war with random targets like Constantinople and Minnesota and the deaths they face are the inanities of being assigned when to die.

Gradually Heller develops the knowledge that here are not airmen but actors and this is a play, which makes the nightmarish all the more horrendous when the actors discover they are actually dying. If death in wartime is absurd, then what is death on the stage?

Captain Starkey is the model of the officer who tries to obey orders and think as little as possible, despite his assertion that he is a feeling man. Ultimately he must compound the damnation of his conscience by ordering his own son to a predetermined death—not even as an officer but as an actor.

Had Heller left well enough alone, he might have bested Pirandello in a statement of the meaninglessness of war and the mindlessness of those who order it. But he was unable to resist the temptation to jazz it up with assorted symbolism, like toys and rattles, Brechtian asides, and choruses, time lapses, and as much improbable behavior as he could jam into two hours.

By the time the subtlety of Heller's scheme becomes evident the play is far too out to make any difference.

Nevertheless, U-D's first offering must be recommended, to new playwrights as an object lesson and to general audiences for its almost realized promise.

AT THE MASONIC — Tony Butala, Gary Pike and Jim Pike, better known as "The Lettermen", will appear at 8:30 p.m., Friday, at the Masonic Auditorium. This is their twentieth cross-country sellout tour.

New play marks a theater first

By HOWARD ALLEN
Eagle Drama Critic

Regardless of the merits of "The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail," opening production of the Wayne State University Bonstelle Theatre, the concept of the cosponsoring American Playwrights Theatre marks one of the most significant developments in American theatres today — decentralization from Broadway.

More than 150 resident, community and collegiate groups, including Wayne State, comprise the APT, a group seeking to end the heavy power of Broadway by making Broadway level theater available throughout the country prior to New York productions.

No New York area

production will be allowed this year, serving the dual goals of decentralizing away from Broadway and preserving the area in case a Broadway run is later contemplated.

"The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail" concerns an overnight jail visit by the rebellious naturalist, Henry David Thoreau, because he refused to pay taxes to support what he considered to be an unjust war against Mexico.

The comparisons with today's society are so obvious as to require little comment. An example of Thoreau's beatitudes, as expounded by Lawrence and Lee, will serve: Blessed are the young for they do not have to read presidential speeches.

Thoreau is presented strictly as a rebel, against the government, against the blind orthodoxy of all establishment, particularly that of the local school board which briefly employed him as a teacher, and certainly against the timidity of his great friend and mentor, Ralph Waldo Emerson, who rides to the jail when he hears of Thoreau's latest revolt.

"What are you doing in jail," Emerson cries through the bars. "What are you doing not in jail," Thoreau replies.

Thoreau is so eminently likeable, one suspects that the authors have shuffled the deck to seek emotional approval rather than the harder to come by intellectual appeal. Whether they did or didn't, the parallels between today and yesterday have been made so blatant as to stack the deck anyway.

Don Blakely's staging is highly successful; he unashamedly offers a feast of prime ingredients — Lee Smith's bubbling and enthusiastic Thoreau, Art Beer Jr.'s almost majestic Emerson, David Frank's earthy and open vagrant, and several others.

"The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail," often worthwhile in itself, may also be a signpost in the course of American theater.

THE CITY OF BELLEVILLE ORDAINS:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess or harbor any dog six (6) months old or over in the City of Belleville unless said dog is licensed as hereinafter provided, or to own, harbor or possess any dog six months old or over that does not, at all time, wear a collar or harness with suitable tag attached. All dogs shall be immunized against rabies, prior to issuance of a license.

Section 2. Every person in possession of any dog who shall suffer such dog to remain on or about his premises for a period of five (5) days shall be deemed the owner thereof.

Section 3. Every owner or custodian of a dog residing within the city of Belleville shall file an application with the City Clerk, giving his legal name and address, and upon the payment of the license fee as hereafter provided, the City Clerk or authorized agent shall issue to each applicant, a license to own or harbor a dog for the term commencing on the first day of July and terminating on the thirtieth day of June next following. Such Application shall state the breed, sex, age, color and markings of the dog. For each such license the City Clerk shall at the time of issuing the same, and for each renewal thereof, collect of each applicant a license fee of Three Dollars ($3) for each male or unsexed dog and Five Dollars ($5) for each female dog. In addition a fee of One Dollar ($1) shall be collected for each license after August 1st of each year, unless the applicant shows to the satisfaction of the City Clerk that a license was not required as of the previous July 1st. Upon the issuance of a license, the City Clerk shall deliver to the Applicant a metal or fiber tag which shall be dated and bear a serial number together with the words "City of Belleville". No tag shall be used on the collar or harness of any dog other than the dog for which it was issued. License fees required by this Ordinance, if unpaid, shall be delinquent on and after the First day of July of the year in which they are due, and it shall be the duty of the City Assessor to add all unpaid license fees required by this Ordinance to the real or personal property assessment roll of all dog owners who are delinquent in the payment of their dog license. Duplicate licenses can be obtained upon application and payment of a fee of twenty-five cents (25c).

Section 4. Every owner, custodian or other person applying for a license for any dog shall present to the City Clerk, or authorized agent, at the time of filing such application, a certificate of rabies vaccination signed by a licensed and registered veterinarian, which certificate shall state the type of vaccine, date administered; veterinarian's name, address and telephone number; name and address of the dog's owner; and a description of the animal so vaccinated.

Section 5. It shall be unlawful for the owner or custodian of any dog to keep or maintain such dog unless it shall have been vaccinated by a licensed and registered veterinarian with anti-rabies vaccine within one year preceding the date on which such dog is kept or maintained.

Section 6. It shall be unlawful for any owner of any female dog to permit said female dog to go beyond the premises of such owner when she is in heat, unless said female dog, is held properly in leash, or for any owner to allow dog to stray beyond his premises unless under reasonable control and of some person, or for any owner to allow any dog to leave his premises under any conditions, unless such dog has been immunized against rabies, provided nothing herein shall be interpreted to prevent an owner taking his dog to the offices of a veterinarian, for purposes of having said dog immunized.

Section 7. Every owner of a dog shall be liable for damages for any and all injuries to person or property caused by such dog, to be determined and collected in appropriate civil proceedings, and nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to impose any liability upon the City of Belleville, its agents or employees, for damages caused by such dog.

Section 8. No person shall harbor or keep any dog, which by loud or frequent or habitual barking, yelping or howling, shall cause a serious annoyance to the neighborhood, or to people passing to and from upon the street.

Section 9. No person shall own or harbor a fierce or vicious dog, or a dog that has been bitten by any animal known to have been afflicted with rabies. All dogs found to be vicious and all rabid dogs, shall be destroyed, unless otherwise disposed of by the owner thereof.

Section 10. Any person who shall have in his or her possession a dog which has contracted rabies, or which has been subjected to the same, or which is suspected of having rabies, or which has bitten any person, shall upon demand of Police Department produce and surrender up such dog to said Police Department, to be held in the City dog pound or approved kennel for treatment and observation for a period of ten days (10). In lieu of such delivering up of such dog to an approved kennel, there to be held for treatment and observation for such ten (10) day period, and shall furnish to the Police Department written evidence that said dog has been so delivered, provided however, that in the event such dog be confined to a private kennel, and such confinement shall be at the sole expense of the owner of said dog, and without expense or risk on the part of the City. If the dog be kept in the City pound or approved kennel, the owner shall be liable for the board of said dog as hereinafter provided for an impounded dog.

Section 11. It shall be the duty of any person owning or harboring a dog which has been attacked or bitten by another dog or other animal showing symptoms of rabies, to immediately notify the Police Department that such person has such dog in his possession, and such person shall comply with all lawful orders and requirements of the Police Department.

Section 12. Whenever a dog is brought to the pound for having bitten a person, the Police Department may, if deemed necessary and advisable, and after holding such dog a sufficient length of time and to meet the requirements of the Health Department for investigation, cause such dog to be destroyed as a vicious dog. Unless waived in writing, notice of intent to so destroy such dog shall be given to the owner if known, and the owner shall have forty-eight (48) hours in which to seek a review by the District Court of the order of the Police Department for the destruction of such dog.

Just don't understand Moody's 'new math'

To the Editor:

In school our children are learning "the new math". In last week's paper, Mr. J.D. Moody proposed his own form of Mathematics whereby three votes are greater than four votes.

I am sure most people have taken the time to study the results of the primary election and recognize the fact that only three of the Bly Slate were nominated in the August primary. Consequently, if all five of the Democratic candidates nominated on Aug. 4 were to be elected on Nov. 3 (which won't happen), members of the Stoelton Team will have four votes on the Township board, leaving the Bly Slate with only three votes. As a result, Bly can't change a thing as he will be out voted on every issue coming before the Board.

Now then Mr. Moody, although you indicate "amazement" in your letter, you are no more amazed than I when a review of the records show that you are not even registered to vote!

So, if you are truly interested in better government, I suggest you take the first fundamental step toward what is your most valued right - the right to vote, because if you don't - you hardly have the right to criticize.

Mrs. Ruth E. Bleeker

Someone understands trailer park problems

To the Editor:

Although I have lived in Van Buren Township only a short time, it was refreshing to me to see that we do have at least one politician with some imagination.

Prior to moving here, we lived in Port Huron in a trailer park. There we were allowed to purchase the lot our mobile home was on.

If Mr. Bly's suggested plan were adopted here in Van Buren, it would give us a sense of belonging to a community and not "camping out" as we now feel. It would also assure us that our landlord could not evict us for not paying a new fee or a raise in rent.

I for one am happy to see there is someone in politics that understands the problems we in trailer parks live with every day.
